

SECTION 27 – SUBMITTING MATERIALS TO OMB

Table of Contents

- 27.1 What do I send to OMB and when (overview)?
- 27.2 What do I include in the initial submission?
- 27.3 What do I submit after passback?

Summary of Changes

Requires submission of many of the materials normally submitted in September after the new Administration is in place (27.1)

Requires MAX computer data beginning in November, before passback by the new Administration (27.3).

27.1 What do I send to OMB and when (overview)?

Normally, you submit information in two stages:

- (1) As part of your initial budget submission. This stage includes information and materials supporting your budget request.
- (2) After passback, by deadlines provided by your OMB representative. Usually beginning in late November, this stage includes MAX computer data, print materials, and additional information used to prepare the budget documents and supporting database. Also, you may need to revise and resubmit some materials included in the initial submission to reflect the effects of final decisions.

Agencies will be required to submit materials necessary for the transition budget in the fall. For the FY 2002 budget, you will submit many of the policy materials you usually provide as part of your initial budget submission (such as the summary and highlight statement and justification materials) in a manner that will be coordinated by the incoming Administration. Even though the timing of the initial budget submission is different this year, the Circular still refers collectively to the materials normally submitted in September as the “initial submission.” This year, passback will not occur before January. However, you will begin updating MAX computer data in November. In the following sections, we tell you more about each stage, including the timing of your submissions, the items required, the criteria for determining whether the item applies to your agency, and where in this Circular to find more detailed guidance on the item.

Agencies that are not subject to Executive Branch review (see section 25.1) don’t make initial submissions. They do need to submit information to be included in the budget documents and the budget database. Your OMB representative will work with you to determine the timing of your submissions.

27.2 What do I include in the initial submission?

- Include the budget justification and other materials described below in Table 1 after the new Administration is in place, by the deadlines that OMB will provide later. This applies to all agencies (except as noted).
- If the criterion listed in the first column of Table 2 applies to you, you will need to submit certain materials before the new Administration is in place. Include the information described in the second column by September 11 (or other date specified by OMB). Prepare data for BY and beyond on a current services basis. You may need to update the materials after final decisions by the new Administration.
- If the criterion listed in the first column of Table 3 applies to you, you will need to submit certain materials before the new Administration is in place. Include the information described in the second column after the new Administration is in place, by the deadlines that OMB will provide later.

The right-hand column of these tables tells you where in this Circular to find more detailed guidance on the requirement. In addition to the information specified in the tables, your OMB representative may require you to include other materials in your initial submission (for example, information about your budget request by account and by Budget Enforcement Act category).

<sup>2</sup> If final decisions require changes to this information, revised materials must be submitted (see section 100.1).

27.3 What do I submit after passback?

(a) Overview.

Normally, you submit three types of information after passback, as explained in more detail in the following sections:

- MAX computer data, submitted through the MAX budget data system (see sections 79-86).
- Print materials, which OMB uses to prepare parts of the budget Appendix (see sections 95-97).
- Additional information, which OMB uses for special purposes (see section 100). This Circular doesn't address the process by which you appeal passback decisions. We issue separate guidance on the appeals process at the time of passback.

(b) Timing.

This year, passback will occur after the new Administration is in place. However, you'll need to submit the MAX computer data required to construct a baseline budget as well as prior and current year data required for policy development before passback, beginning in November. Your OMB representative will give you deadlines for providing the information described below. These deadlines are based on the very tight schedule that OMB must maintain in order to transmit the budget on time. In order to meet the deadlines, you must begin providing the required information based on passback decisions. Don't wait until you've resolved appeals. Appeals generally affect very little of the information you submit, and you will have an opportunity to change the information as necessary to reflect the appeal resolution. Unless your OMB representative agrees, don't submit information that assumes an appeal resolution different from passback. When an appeal results in changes to passback decisions, the changes often differ from the agency proposal.

(c) MAX computer data.

You must submit the MAX computer data described below in the Table 1 for each applicable budget account. In addition, if the criterion listed in the first column of Table 2 applies to you, submit the data described in the second column for each applicable budget account. In both tables, we indicate the MAX data section or sections involved and tell you where in Part 1 to find guidance on the requirement.

(d) Print materials.

Print materials include these items printed in the Budget Appendix:

- Appropriations language. You must submit language for each account for which appropriations or limitation language was enacted in the CY or is proposed in the CY or BY, including supplemental appropriations requests. You must also submit any general provisions that pertain to you (see section 96).

requests, rescission proposals, and items proposed for later transmittal. You may be required to provide tables and footnotes that aren't generated by MAX under certain circumstances (see section 97).
