EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATION

The Office of Administration was established within the Executive Office of the President by Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1977 (42 FR 5601). The Office was activated, effective December 4, 1977, by Executive Order 12028 of December 12, 1977 (42 FR 62895).

The Office of Administration, headed by the Director, provides administrative support services to all units within the Executive Office of the President, including those services which are in direct support of the President. The services provided by the Office of Administration include information, personnel, and financial management, and general office operations, such as mail, messenger, printing, procurement, and supply services.

Records Common to All Offices

1. Office Reference Material.

The office reference material consists of extra copies of record materials retained solely for convenience of reference; information and reference copies of correspondence and other papers on which no action is necessary; preliminary drafts of letters, memoranda, reports, studies, preliminary worksheets and informal notes that do not add significant data or substance in the final steps of the preparation of an official record; shorthand notes, including stenographic notebooks and stenotype tapes, that have been transcribed; abstracts of correspondence, route slips and letters of transmittal that do not contain significant information; stocks of publications and processed documents maintained for distribution purposes; catalogues, trade journals, and other publications or printed material received from other Government agencies, commercial firms, or private institutions, which require no action or supplement the official record.

TEMPORARY. Cut-off every 2 years.
 Destroy on site when 2 years old or when no
 Longer needed, whichever is sooner.

2. Personal Papers.

Papers of a private or nonofficial character which pertain only to an individual's personal affairs that are kept in the office of an OA employee will be clearly designated by him as nonofficial and will at all times be filed separately from the official records of his office. In cases where matters requiring the transaction of official business are received in private personal correspondence, the portions of such correspondence that pertain to official business will be extracted and made a part of the official files.

TEMPORARY: Dispose when no longer needed.

Office of the Director

The Director of the Office of Administration reports to the President. The Director is responsible for ensuring that the Office of Administration provides common administrative support and services to units within the Executive Office of the President.

Subject to such direction or approval that the President may provide or require, the director shall: organize the Office of Administration; employ personnel; contract for supplies or services, and perform all other duties that the President might do as head of the Office of Administration. The files of this Office are covered under Items 1, 2, and 3 of this schedule.

(NOTE: Director's Alphabetical File.

These files are related to the Director's role as Special Assistant to the President for Information Management, and include correspondence, memorandum, and background information related to information management. The files are arranged alphabetically by subject.

PERMANENT. Cut-off every 2 years.
